About Town of Sweden Historic Landmarks

PRESERVATION LAW

Local Historic Preservation law was enacted by the Town of Sweden Town Board in 1993. While the law can be found in its entirety at the web site listed below, its Purpose is reproduced here.

PURPOSE

It is hereby declared as a matter of public policy that the protection, enhancement and perpetuation of landmarks, landmark sites and historic districts and rural landscapes/ viewscapes is necessary to promote the economic, cultural, educational and general welfare of the public. The Town is authorized to enact a local law pursuant to Municipal Home Rule Law §96-a to effect and accomplish the protection, enhancement and perpetuation of such improvements which represent or reflect elements of the town's cultural, social, economic, political and architectural and rural history; to safeguard the town's historic, aesthetic cultural and rural heritage, as embodies and reflected in such improvements and districts; to stabilize and improve property values, to ensure the harmonious, orderly and efficient growth in development of the town; to foster civic pride in the accomplishments of the past; and to protect and enhance the town's attractiveness to visitors and to provide an educational role in the community with regard to historic structures and landmarks preservation.
