John D. Burns

Coming from England with his parents when very young Mr. Burns became associated with Brockport. He was a graduate of the Brockport Normal School and while still quite a young man began teaching and studying law at the same time. His law practice was begun in this village, and he was executor of many Brockport estates. He followed his profession here for many years until failing health forbade. A son, George Burns, follows in his footsteps in Rochester.

[Martin,C.E.; 1929; p.39]

Text Source:
Charlotte Elizabeth Martin; "The story of Brockport for one-hundred years, 1829-1929" Published [Brockport, N.Y.? : s.n., 1929]

Provenance:
Original document: Rochester Public Library Local History Division Scan of original text (relevant pages) can be found at:
http://catalogplus.libraryweb.org/#section=resource&resourceid=21473326&currentIndex=1&view=fullDetailsDetailsTab

Reformatted for Brockport Community Museum use by: Norm Frisch