Locke—Town of Sweden, NY

Elisha Locke with his wife, Mehitable, daughter of James Stickney of Bath, N. H., settled in the southeastern part of the Town of Sweden in the 1820's. His home is still standing on the Beadle Road (now occupied by the Leo Keenan family). All of the walls are 2 1 1/4 inches thick, made of stone. Elisha and Mehitable both lived to the age of 84. They had six sons and three daughters. One of their offspring, also named Elisha, married Sarah Way and they had several children, including Eugene, Harriet, Clayton and George. Eugene married Marian Maw and had four sons, one of whom is Allen Locke, who still resides in Brockport. George, another son of Elisha married Mary Covell, daughter of Hosea Covell, and became a distinguished dentist and prominent citizen of Brockport. His widow is one of our senior citizens and now resides in the Cupola Home.
