Harold Pratt (Sonny) grew up in nearby Clarendon NY made it to the 8th grade and was then was forced due to economic circumstances to go to work at the nearby farms in fields picking vegetables and things that were in season. He had a love of farming and that also carried threw out his life. He then made friends with local truck drivers picking up and hauling the produce to markets in Philadelphia and New York City hence his love of travel and adventure was experienced at a very young age. As soon as he was old enough he joined the US Navy and the rest is history. His wife Susan, three daughters, five grandchildren, and two great grandchildren survive him.
