U. S. Air Force
Viet Nam
Sergeant, E4
August 6, 1965 – February 25, 1969

Entered service as Airman Basic and ended as Sergeant, E4.

He served in Viet Nam for just short of a year (11 months and 25 days. While there he served as a Communication Specialist.

He did not talk a lot about his military service but did share with Dody Ballard that because he was a Communication Specialist he did not see much front line action in Viet Nam and that there was one time while he was there that the base where he was stationed came under attack but he was never wounded or directly involved in any combat situation.
