George P. Toth

Director of Career Services
Career Services
(1974-2004)

Viet Nam Era
2nd Lieutenant
Co. A, 2nd Battalion, 169th Infantry
Connecticut National Guard

We do not yet have a lot of information about George's service in the Guard, but we do have a newspaper clipping that suggests that he was in the guard in the late 60s or early 70s.

GEORGE P. TOTH, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Toth, 151 Buena Vista Ave., was commissioned a second lieutenant at graduation exercises of the Connecticut National Guard Officer Candidate School at the Hartford Armory Sept. 12. Lt. Toth, who served with Co. A, 2nd Battalion, 169th Infantry with home station at the Torrington Armory, is presently a resident dormitory counselor at Pennsylvania State University, where he is doing graduate work in biology.
(Schlott Photo)

"George P. Toth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Toth, 151 Buena Vista Avenue, was commissioned a second lieutenant at graduation exercises of the Connecticut National Guard Officer Candidate School at the Hartford Armory September 12 (year unknown). Lt. Toth, who served with Co. A, 2nd Battalion, 169th Infantry with home station at the Torrington Armory, is presently a resident dormitory counselor at Pennsylvania State University, where he is doing graduate work in biology."